

Don't Hang Up Your Ice Skates for Summer

The temperature is not only heating up outside this summer, but inside at the indoor ice rink. Dan Perceval, creator of Xtreme Ice Skating, will be leading both advanced and beginner classes Friday nights throughout July and August at Ice-land, 3345 Hillside Avenue, New Hyde Park. The classes run for seven weeks, 45 minutes per class, at a cost of $250 for the entire program.

Xtreme Ice Skating is not just a sport but a cultural revolution.

"Xtreme Ice Skating is an extreme sports culture, on the ice. The sport of Xtreme is more than just "freestyle" or doing tricks. It is a sport with such a personality, feeling, emotion, music, movement, color, theme, and soul, it inspires every individual who experiences Xtreme!" says Dan.

Experience what Dan is talking about by checking out several Xtreme videos at www.xtremeiceskating.com. You can also check out Dan' Xtreme moves on YouTube (links provided below).

Don't miss out on this ice skating phenomenon. Learn to skate Xtreme with Dan Perceval. You can contact Dan by visiting his web site or by calling him at 223-4285.